

EMERGING SECURITY CHALLENGES DIVISION
DIVISION DES DÉFIS DE SÉCURITÉ ÉMERGENTS

12 June 2019
ESC(SPS)(2019)0159
SFP G4775

Assoc.Prof. Asaf Behzat Sahin
Yildirim Beyazit University
Cankiri Caddesi Cicek Sokak No. 3
Altindag-Ulus

Dear Assoc.Prof. Sahin,

Completion of the NATO Science for Peace Project G4775

This letter is to certify that NATO's Emerging Security Challenges Division considers that the work described in the latest approved Project Plan has been satisfactorily completed. Therefore, under the terms of the initial grant letter and subsequent grant documents, NATO's support for this project is ended.

I am pleased to inform you that NATO is herewith transferring ownership of the equipment (Inventory Record refers) purchased through the SPS funds thereunto allocated.

You are reminded that NATO reserves the right to audit your use of the funds it has provided. For this purpose, you are requested to retain all accounting records, invoices and vouchers documenting your expenditures for three years following the present completion of NATO's support.

On behalf of NATO, and the SPS Programme Staff, I wish you and your colleagues much future success.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Deniz Beten
Senior SPS & Partnership Cooperation Advisor

Att: Inventory Record

cc: Ms. Juliana Mardon, Budget Officer ESCD

EMERGING SECURITY CHALLENGES DIVISION
DIVISION DES DÉFIS DE SÉCURITÉ EMERGENTS

12 June 2019
ESC(SPS)(2019)0159

SFP G4775

Prof. Natan Kopeika
Ben Gurion University of the Negev
Dept. Electrical and Computer Engineering
POB 653
Beer-Sheva
Israel

Dear Prof. Kopeika,

Completion of the NATO Science for Peace Project G4775

This letter is to certify that NATO's Emerging Security Challenges Division considers that the work described in the latest approved Project Plan has been satisfactorily completed. Therefore, under the terms of the initial grant letter and subsequent grant documents, NATO's support for this project is ended.

I am pleased to inform you that NATO is herewith transferring ownership of the equipment (Inventory Record refers) purchased through the SPS funds thereunto allocated.

You are reminded that NATO reserves the right to audit your use of the funds it has provided. For this purpose, you are requested to retain all accounting records, invoices and vouchers documenting your expenditures for three years following the present completion of NATO's support.

On behalf of NATO, and the SPS Programme Staff, I wish you and your colleagues much future success.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Deniz Beten
Senior SPS & Partnership Cooperation Advisor

Att: Inventory Record

cc: Ms. Juliana Mardon, Budget Officer ESCD

EMERGING SECURITY CHALLENGES DIVISION
DIVISION DES DÉFIS DE SÉCURITÉ EMERGENTS

12 June 2019
ESC(SPS)(2019)0159
SFP G4775

Dr. Hakan Altan
Middle East Technical University
Universiteler Mah.
Dumlupinar Bulv. No 1
Cankaya / Ankara
Turkey

Dear Dr. Altan,

Completion of the NATO Science for Peace Project G4775

This letter is to certify that NATO's Emerging Security Challenges Division considers that the work described in the latest approved Project Plan has been satisfactorily completed. Therefore, under the terms of the initial grant letter and subsequent grant documents, NATO's support for this project is ended.

I am pleased to inform you that NATO is herewith transferring ownership of the equipment (Inventory Record refers) purchased through the SPS funds thereunto allocated.

You are reminded that NATO reserves the right to audit your use of the funds it has provided. For this purpose, you are requested to retain all accounting records, invoices and vouchers documenting your expenditures for three years following the present completion of NATO's support.

On behalf of NATO, and the SPS Programme Staff, I wish you and your colleagues much future success.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Deniz Beten
Senior SPS & Partnership Cooperation Advisor

Att: Inventory Record

cc: Ms. Juliana Mardon, Budget Officer ESCD