Biography

I received my PhD in December 2008 from the Department of Central Eurasian Studies at Indiana University. I teach at the International Relations Department of Middle East Technical University in Ankara, Turkey. I was a visiting scholar at the Davis Center, Harvard University in 2016-17 Academic Year. I was a British Academy Newton Fellow in 2016-2021. My research interests cover the former Soviet region (FSU), nation-building, peace and conflict studies, migration and diaspora studies. I have published in journals such as International Political Science Review, International Migration, Central Asian Survey, Nationalities Papers and Bilig (Journal of the Social Sciences of the Turkic World).
